

COMMUNITY ART ENGAGEMENT PROJECT

PRESERVATION: LIVES NOT LOST

Create your own testimony to the AIDS pandemic. Memorialize those who have been lost and immortalize your commitment to the fight. Bring small items and significant mementos, small enough to fit in a test tube, and join us in our annual AIDS Walk art project! Almost anything and everything is acceptable (in any amounts)!

We're looking for items that may represent a life or personality... Almost anything and everything is acceptable (in any amounts)!

Suggested Items

Marbles - Tiny Toys - Small Shells - Beach Glass - Buttons
Nuts & Bolts - Birthday Candles - Feathers - Bottle Caps
Jewelry Charms - Scrabble Tiles - Game Pieces
Fortune Cookie Fortunes - Watches - Fabric

For more information, please contact PCAF directly by calling (253) 383-2565 or by e-mailing us at events@piercecounityAIDS.org.

Read a TACOMA WEEKLY article on the project by going to www.tacomaweekly.com/article/3235/

WITH FUNDING SUPPORT FROM

Tacoma

Arts Commission